

FALL 2008 TEACHING FELLOWSHIPS

❖ Our Teaching Fellowships ❖

Five teaching fellowships gather on Sunday mornings at 9:30 to provide a gospel balance of “meaty” teaching and rich relationships in a caring environment. Solid teaching and true fellowship, we believe, will result in the twin goals of biblical discipleship—nurture and mission.

❖ Light and Life Class ❖

Fellowship Hall ~ Rick Stark and Jason Carter

A liberating study of the Book of Galatians spans the months of October and November.

❖ Fellowship Class ❖

Room E-6 ~ Gary Spooner

“Change Agents in Changing Times” helps Christians and seekers alike understand and respond to change.

❖ Halleluiah Class ❖

Music Room ~ Bob Norman and Bret Missildine

The Gospel According to Luke: Christ’s introduction, His Ministry, His rejection, His Crucifixion and Resurrection.

❖ The First Epistle of Peter ❖

Room E-8 ~ Charles Kendrick-Holmes

The First Epistle of Peter looks at who we are in Christ with a verse-by-verse breakdown of doctrine, principles, & application.

❖ College Class ❖

Sanctuary (Jericho Section) ~ Steve Dowling & Matthew Goodman

“The Six Shortest Books of the Bible”
